

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

March 3, 2009

On a rather cold Tuesday evening, President Bobby Seamans called the weekly meeting of the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club to order promptly at 7:00. Roger Peebles led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Tarl Fennell offered the invocation.

Guests: We were pleased to have Carolyn Canady and Petite Garrett with us last night.

Next week will be the second Tuesday, and Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, and Caroline Harless, are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: Sports reporter Tobe Karrh informed us that the Swainsboro High basketball team has been eliminated from the state tournament. Mark Wilson won the Mayakoba Golf Classic in Playa del Carmen, Mexico. Geoff Ogilvy won in match play, and Lorena Ocha won the Honda LPGA Thailand with a 6 under par 66. Kyle Busch won the NASCAR Sprint Cup Shelby 427.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer had not planned to hold court last night, but Tim Goodman disturbed His Honor's dinner by passing out Tabloid assignments while the judge was enjoying his evening repast. Tim was fined for this offense, and I am sure that somewhere in the rules of Kiwanis, this is a forbidden act.

Announcements: Speaking of Tabloid ads, Tim did give us our sales assignments for the Pine Tree Festival Tabloid. He emphasized that this is one of two fund raisers that we will have this year, and urged everyone to work hard to sell as many ads as possible. He needs everything completed and back to him by April Fool's Day. (That's April 1!) The other fund raiser will be the Knotty Pine 5K race and Fun Run on Festival day, and he is counting on everyone to assist with that.

President Bobby reminded us that the Board will meet on March 12 at the New China Restaurant. He also asked us to reserve Friday, April 10 for the Pre-K Fun Day. We will provide cotton candy, popcorn, and hamburgers.

Program: Paul Cerpovicz was program chair for the evening. He brought us a report on the Science Olympiad, which was held last weekend at East Georgia College. He said that 11 schools participated from as far away as Atlanta, Augusta, and Savannah, bringing about 250 visitors to Swainsboro. Some of the events included chemistry, biology, and physics projects, making electric cars, packaging an egg in a liter bottle and launching it into the air and trying to bring it down intact, and many other activities. Despite inclement weather, he deemed the day a success. Thanks to Paul for an interesting program.

Door Prizes: Stacy Barber provided a chocolate cake with butter cream icing, which Tim Goodman won. Bobby Seamans won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. L.H. Weise and Tobe Karrh won the meals.
