

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

March 31, 2009

President Bobby Seamans opened the meeting promptly at 7:00. He asked Charles Brewer to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Ed Bolton to offer the invocation. We had a fair attendance.

Guests: Unfortunately we had no guests with us last night. However, next Tuesday is the first Tuesday in April, and Travis Garrett, Roger Peebles, Jim Daughtry, Edwin Canady, Stacey Barber, Bobby Seamans, Tarl Fennell, and Jason Johnson are invited to bring their spouse or a guest to the meeting.

Sports: Tobe Karrh brought us his weekly sports report. In basketball, the Final Four have been named, and they include Michigan State, North Carolina, Connecticut, and Villanova. You'll probably know the outcome of it all by the time you read this! Tiger Woods is back, and he won the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Watch for the Master's Tournament coming up next week. Jimmy Johnson won the Goody's 500. Locally, the East Georgia College students defeated the faculty in a softball game Tuesday afternoon. The score was 7 to 3 in a rain-shortened, but official game.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer could find no offenses worthy of a fine, and he recessed court for the evening.

Announcements: President Bobby reminded us that next week will be Fun Day at Pre-K. We'll be making cotton candy on Thursday afternoon and cooking hamburgers on Friday.

John Black mentioned that we need to remember Dr. Madison Dixon in our prayer. He also announced that the Arts Council will have a 30th birthday bash at the Cadle barn on Friday, April 17 at 7:00. See Bobbie Daughtry for tickets.

Program: Jim Dekle introduced Tim Goodman (Does he really need an introduction?) as our speaker for the evening. He brought us up to date on the Tabloid and told us that we are running roughly equal to last year in sales. Some of our advertisers declined to take ads this year, but we have picked up others. He thinks that with a final push, we can surpass what we did last year.

He also talked about the Knotty Pine Run, which will be held on Saturday May 9, Pine Tree Festival Day. He told us about some changes that will be made, and some things that will stay the same. Tim is counting on the club to turn out in force that day to assist with the race. Following the Knotty Pine Run, there will be a one mile Fun Run. Tim is working with the schools to encourage as many students as possible to participate. Thanks Tim, for the program and all you do for the club.

Door Prizes: Charles Brewer provided a lemon cheese cake, baked by Petite Garrett. President Bobby held the lucky ticket. David Bartram won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. Bob Losser and Paul Cerpovicz won the meals.
