

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

May 19, 2009

President Bobby Seamans called our meeting to order promptly at 7:00. He asked Jim Daughtry to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Ed Bolton to offer the invocation.

Guests: Christine McCrosky was the guest of Ron, and Marilyn Couse was the guest of Gary. In addition, Andy Hendrix was the guest of his father Raymond. We were pleased to have these guests with us.

Next Tuesday is the fourth Tuesday, and David Bartram, Ed Bolton, Tim Goodman, Bob Losser, Jim Dekle, Paul Cerpovicz, and Adi Galloway are invited to bring their spouse or a guest.

Sports: According to Tobe Karrh, there were a lot of sports since last we met. Filly Rachel Alexander won the Preakness. Zack Johnson won the Texas Open, Shane Howey won the Irish Open, and Jeff Knox won the Georgia Amateur. Roger Federer won on the courts in the Madrid Open. More sports next week.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer held court last night. First, he fined Roger Peebles for coming in after the bell sounded. Then he fined President Bobby for allegedly running in the Knotty Pine without paying the entrance fee.

Announcements: New officer training will be held later this month in Dudley, Georgia. Let President Bobby know if you plan to attend.

President Bobby named a nominating committee consisting of Jim Daughtry, Tim Goodman, Edwin Canady, and Roger Peebles to name a proposed slate of officers for next year.

By the time you read this, the May Board of Directors meeting will have taken place.

Remember Chip Durden in your prayers. He was in University Hospital as of last Tuesday night.

Program: Jim Dekle introduced Tim Goodman to present our program. Tim presented a report on the Knotty Pine Run. He reported a total of 99 runners, 75 in the 5K and 24 in the Fun Run. He also reported that 78% (you figure how many that is) were preregistered. He thanked all of those who assisted with the race including a fair number of non-Kiwanians. He thanked his wife Cheryl, in particular, for designing the placement board and supervising his construction of it. In looking toward next year, one of the things he hopes we can do is increase participation in the Fun Run. Thanks, Tim, for organizing the race and for bringing us the update.

Door Prizes: Jim Daughtry won the red velvet cake, baked by Petite Garrett and provided by the club. L.H. Weise won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. Tarl Fennel and Tim Goodman won the take out meals.
