

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

August 4, 2009

President Bobby Seamans called the weekly meeting of the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club to order promptly at 7:00. David Bartram led the club in the Pledge Allegiance, and Tim Goodman offered the invocation. There was a fair attendance for a hot August evening.

Guests: Petite Garret was the guest of Travis, and Bobbie Daughtry was the guest of Jim. Other than our speaker, there were no other guests.

Next week will be the second Tuesday, and Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, and Caroline Harless are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: Tobe Karrh brought us the weekly sports report. In golf, Tiger Woods own the Fedex Cup. Also in golf, Fred Funk won the U.S. Senior's Open, setting a new tournament record. In horse racing, the filly Rachel Alexandra chalked up another win. The Braves continue their up and down performance, mostly down this weekend. There will surely be more sports next week.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer had to adjourn court last night, since he could find no finable offenses. (In case you have never heard of the word finable, I just made it up a minute or so ago!)

Announcements: No real announcements were made last night, but Tim Goodman reported on the District convention, which was held at Brasstown Resort in the cool north Georgia mountains. He reported that 102 clubs were represented at the convention. Evidently, no earth shaking action was taken at the meeting.

Program: Jim Dekle, acting a program chair introduced the Honorable Bobby Reeves, Judge of Superior Court as the guest speaker for the evening. Judge Reeves entertained us with tales of cases in which he represented clients or presided over. We not only learned some things about the law but were entertained by Judge Reeves as he related the cases. Thanks to Judge Reeves for taking time to come and speak to us, and thanks also to Jim for arranging the program.

Door Prizes: The cake was a Hershey Bar chocolate cake, baked by Petite Garrett and furnished by Jason Johnson. Jim Daughtry took it home. Charles Brewer won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. L.H. Weise continued his winning streak by taking one of the meals, and Tobe Karrh took the other one.

Coming up:	Program	Cake
August 11	Jim Dekle	Chip Durden
August 18	Travis Garrett	Club
August 25	Chris Cann	Tobe Karrh
September 1	Dwight Watt	Chris Cann
September 8	Charles Brewer	L.H. Weise
September 15	Chip Durden	John Blackburn

Thanks to Edwin Canady for providing me information for the bulletin.

Some questions:

Do they have a fourth of July in England?

Can a man living in the USA be buried in Canada?

How many outs are there in an inning?

A farmer has 17 sheep and all but 9 die. How many are left?
