

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

September 2, 2009

President Bobby Seamans called the meeting to order at 7:00 sharp. Travis Garrett led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Tim Goodman offered the invocation. We had a fair crowd, but as I've said before, there is room for a few more.

Guests: We were pleased to have Petite Garrett as guest of Travis, Bobby Daughtry as guest of Jim, Carolyn Cannady as guest of Edwin, and Bill McWhorter as guest of Jesse Hackle. We are always happy to have guests at our meetings.

Next week will be the second Tuesday, and Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, and Caroline Harless are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: Tobe Karrh brought us the weekly sports report, reporting that the Braves continue to be Bravish, losing to the Phillies 3 to 2 over the weekend. Heath Slocumb defeated Tiger Woods to win the Barclays, and an Asian by the name of An won the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship. On another baseball note, the Little League team from Chula Vista, California, won the Little League World Series. There will be more sports next week!

Court: Judge Charles Brewer recessed court for the evening.

Announcements: By the time you read this, the club will have harvested grapes to at the vineyard of L.H. Weise. That activity was scheduled for 8:30 Saturday morning. The grapes are to be delivered to local nursing homes. Thanks to L. H. and Jean for their generosity and to the Kiwanians who helped pick the grapes.

Tim Goodman has a sign up sheet for Installation night, September 29. Let him know if you will be there with a guest.

Program: The program was arranged by Dwight Watt and introduced by John Black. John presented part of the program, and he talked about some things that are happening at East Georgia College. He mentioned October 8, which will be a Day for EGC, designed to raise funds for the EGC Foundation. The Foundation supports faculty development and student scholarships. He showed pictures of the Sudie Fulford Center, under construction at the entrance to the college on Lamb's Bridge Road. He also told us that EGC has a 50 million dollar impact on its service area! He then introduced Norma Woods, Director of Marketing, who told us about a few more things going on at the college. EGC is entering the world of intercollegiate athletics with men's basketball and baseball and women's softball. EGC offers a nursing program in cooperation with Darton College and a BBA program through Georgia Southwestern. A lot is going on at EGC, too much to list in this bulletin. You may be interested in knowing the Chronicle of Higher Education named EGC as among the great colleges to work for. As they say at EGC, "Start with a dream, finish with a future." Thanks John and Norma.

Door Prizes: Bobby Daughtry won the coconut cream pie, baked by petite Garrett and provided by the club. L.H. Weise won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. Jim Dekle and Jesse Hackle won the take out meals.
