

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

September 15, 2009

President Bobby Seamans called the weekly meeting of our club to order promptly at 7:00. We had a fair attendance. Paul Cerpovicz led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Tim Goodman offered the invocation.

Guests: Believe it or not, we did not have any guests last night! However, next week is the fourth Tuesday, and David Bartram, Ed Bolton, Tim Goodman, Bob Losser, Jim Dekle, and Paul Cerpovicz, are invited to bring their spouse or a guest.

Director's Meeting Report: First of all, we are happy to welcome Jesse Hackle into our club as a new member. Jesse and his wife Sarah run the North Main Grill. If you haven't met him yet, be sure and say hello next week.

Secondly, the directors voted to support the Eagle Scout Project of Colby Smith, who recently visited our club. He is constructing a "Healing Garden" at the Sunshine House.

Lastly, the Club will sponsor a chili supper at Swainsboro High School on October 16.

Sports: Tobe Karrh had a lot of sports news last night. ECI won, and Swainsboro had a bye. Both UGA and Georgia Tech won; Michigan State lost; Michigan won; the Falcons won, and the Braves won. The U.S. retains the Walker cup, in golf. Finally, Juan Martin del Portro of Argentina won the U.S. Open in Tennis. And now you know. More sports next week.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer recessed court again last night. He did note, however, that Raymond Hendrix and Jason Johnson were very close to being fined for tardiness.

Announcements: As noted above, we will be sponsoring a chili supper on October 16, and we need everybody's help. Go ahead and reserve this date on your calendar.

If you have not signed up with Tim Goodman for Installation Night on September 29, be sure and let him know right away if you will attend and bring a guest.

Program: Program Chair Chip Durden presented our program last night. He talked about some of his ancestors who were involved in the Civil War (or whatever you choose to call it). He brought some artifacts that they had used including a sword with a leather scabbard and a "pocket revolver." He also showed us a bayonet that one of his ancestors recovered on the battle field. It also had a leather scabbard. According to Chip, he is the ninth generation of his family to reside in Emanuel County. He certainly has a rich heritage. Thanks to Chip for a very interesting program.

Door Prizes: John Blackburn sent a red velvet cake, and Charles Brewer won it. Jim Daughtry won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. Ed Bolton and L.H. Weise won the takeout meals. Chip brought a couple of special prizes: a Confederate seal, won by Ron McCrosky and a letter opener won by Jim Hendrickson.
