

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

October 6, 2009

On the first night of our new Kiwanis year, President David Bartram opened the meeting at precisely 7:00 p.m. He asked Past President Bobby Seamans to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and Ed Bolton to offer the invocation. We had a fair attendance.

Notes of Sadness: Our immediate past Governor, Carlton Norris, died on October 4. We extend our sincere sympathies to his family and friends. See President David for information on making memorial donations.

Lillian Darling, widow of former member Bob Darling died last weekend in Dublin. She was 101 years old. We extend our sincere sympathies to her family and friends.

Guests: We were pleased to have Bobby Daughtry as guest of Jim and Petite Garrett as guest of Travis.

Next week will be the second Tuesday, and Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, Jesse Hackle, and Caroline Harless are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: With football season in full swing, Tobe Karrh had plenty of sports to talk about. Swainsboro and DEA lost, and ECI did not play. The University of Georgia lost to LSU, Georgia Tech defeated Ole Miss, and Michigan State defeated Michigan. Auburn defeated Tennessee, and Georgia Southern defeated Wofford. The Braves are out of the playoffs, and will try again next year.

Court: Even though he is no longer President, Bobby Seamans can't seem to stay out of trouble with the Judge.

Judge Charles Brewer fined him for improperly wearing his badge.

Announcements: The chili supper is scheduled for October 16. Sell those tickets!

On Saturday night, October 31, we will have our annual Halloween Fest on the Boneyard.

Program: Past Lieutenant Governor Tim Goodman formally installed Jason Johnson as Second Vice President and Edwin Canady for his 24th term as secretary. Congratulations and a big Kiwanis thanks to Edwin for what he does for our club. Tim also installed new directors Tarl Fennell, Jim Daughtry, Ron McCrosky, and Jim Hendrickson as well as returning directors, Ed Bolton, Raymond Hendrix, Travis Garrett, and L.H. Weise.

President David presented the proposed budget for the new year.

Door Prizes: David Bartram provided a strawberry cake, baked by Petite Garrett, and won by John Black. Debbie Jones, of Cateder Creations, won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. L.H. Weise and Tim Goodman won the meals.
