The Swainsboro Kiwanian

October 7, 2008

We began our 2008-2009 Kiwanis year with a rather sparse group of Kiwanians present. Some of our members were out of town, and we hope they'll all be back next week. Nevertheless, President Bobby Seamans brought us to order promptly at 7:00. Past President Bob Losser, who has returned from his sojourn in the far North, led us in the Pledge of Allegiance, and Jim Hendrickson offered the invocation.

Guests: Roger Peebles brought along his wife Mary Ann, and President Bobby invited his friend Jean Moore. In addition, Bobby also invited Carl Fennel, who is a prospective member. It was good to have these guests with us.

Next week, Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, Caroline Harless, and Chris Ramsey are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: In the absence of Sports Reporter Tobe Karrh and Associate Sports Reporter Gary Couse, we managed to cobble together a sports report. On the local scene, Swainsboro High School lost by a single point to Jefferson County, ECI did not play, and no information was forthcoming on DEA. On the college scene, Georgia Tech defeated Duke, Georgia Southern won, and Georgia did not play.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer began the year in a lenient mode and did not hold court. He did collect some birthday dollars. Keep those birthday dollars coming.

Announcements: Octoberfest will be held on October 31, and Jim Dekle will have assignments ready next week. We need everyone's help to have a great evening for the kids.

Program: The program was in two parts. Tim Goodman and President Bobby reported on the recent training conference in Macon. The major emphasis for the year is going to be to recruit new members and build new clubs. Following their reports, President Bobby reviewed the year book. If you don't have yours, pick one up as soon as you can. President Bobby stated that it will be necessary for each member to have two programs and two cakes this year because of our enrollment.

Door Prizes: President Bobby furnished a chocolate layer cake, and Jim Hendrickson won it. Tim Goodman won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. Jean Moore and Raymond Hendrix won the take out meals.

Next Week: Roger Peebles has the program and the cake.
