

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

October 14, 2008

The Swainsboro Kiwanis Club met as usual on Tuesday night, with President Bobby Seamans presiding, calling us to order promptly at 7:00. Raymond Hendrix led the Pledge, and Travis Garrett offered the invocation. Attendance was up a little from last week, since some of our roving Kiwanians have returned home.

Guests: We were pleased to have Jean Weise and Barbara Karrh with us as guests of L.H. and Tobe. Also, Paul Cerpovicz brought along his daughters Anita and Carolina.

Next week, the third Tuesday, Ron McCrosky, Jim Hendrickson, Gary Couse, Chip Durden, Charles Brewer, Raymond Hendrix, Bill Breedlove, and Dwight Watt are invited to bring a spouse or a guest.

Sports: Our sports reporter Tobe Karrh was back with us, and brought us up to date on last weekend's sports activity. The three local high schools, Swainsboro High, ECI, and DEA were all winners. Other winners included UGA, Georgia Tech, University of Florida, and University of North Carolina. The Falcons were also in the winner's column. In golf, Zack Johnson won the Texas Open. Auto racing was also mentioned, but your reporter did not get it down.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer did not issue any citations tonight, but warned that next week he may do so. There was some discussion as to whether the gong rang on time or a minute or so early. Watch next week.

Announcements: Keep Friday, October 31, on your calendar as that is when we will be sponsoring Oktoberfest.

Jim Dekle is heading this up, and he will need everyone's help. Due to a conflict, he could not be here last night, but he will have assignments next week.

We have found that a number of our email addresses are incorrect. If you would like to get the bulletin by email, please email me at edbolton@ega.edu so that I will have your correct address.

Program: Our program chair last night was Roger Peebles, and he invited Brad Hooks to bring us up to date on the correctional facilities in Twin City and Swainsboro. Brad brought along Jody Calloway to assist with the technology. The Twin City installation is a Probation Detention Center, and it is the largest in the state, with 352 beds. The Swainsboro facility is a work release center, designed to prepare inmates for release into the community. It provides the opportunity for them to work, pay board, and save some money for the time when they are released. It accommodates 212 inmates. Thanks to Roger and Brad for an interesting and informative program.

Door Prizes: In addition to arranging the program, Roger also furnished a red velvet cake, which Raymond Hendrix won. Ron McCrosky won the Domino's pizza, furnished by Chris Cann. Jason Johnson and Justin Peebles won the take-out meals.

Coming up:	Program	Cake
October 21	L.H. Weise	Adi Galloway
October 28	Ed Bolton	Raymond Hendrix
November 4	Adi Galloway	Chip Durden
November 11	Ron McCrosky	Bill Breedlove
November 18	Caroline Harless	Gary Couse

The Swainsboro Kiwanian is published weekly by the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club, P.O. Box 3, Swainsboro, GA. Issue date October 14, 2008. Postmaster: Send Form 3579 to Swainsboro Kiwanis Club, P.O. Box 3, Swainsboro, GA 30401. Periodicals Postage paid at Swainsboro, GA 30401.