

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

October 21, 2008

President Bobby Seamans called our meeting to order at 7:00. Jim Daughtry led the club in the Pledge, and Bob Losser offered the invocation. We had a fair crowd of Kiwanians present.

Guests: Gary Couse brought Marilyn to our meeting last night. We were very glad to have her.

We also were happy to welcome Tarl Fennell as a new member. Tarl has visited with us several times, and we offer him a big Kiwanis welcome. He was sponsored by President Bobby.

David Bartram, Ed Bolton, Tim Goodman, Bob Losser, Jim Dekle, Paul Cerpovicz, and Adi Galloway are invited to bring their spouse or a guest next week.

Sports: Tobe Karrh reported that ECI and DEA won, and Swainsboro lost. College winners included UGA, Georgia Tech, LSU, Alabama, Miami, and Nebraska. Lewis Hamilton won the Chinese Grand Prix.

Gary Couse added that Jimmy Johnson is far ahead in the NASCAR point race and that Tampa will face Philadelphia in the World Series.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer fined David Bartram and John Black (in absentia) for a picture in the Forest-Blade. He also fined President Bobby for failure to respect the court.

Announcements: Jim Dekle handed out assignments for Octoberfest to be held on the Boneyard October 31. The list will be posted on our club website, www.swainsborokiwanis.org. Be there at 4:30.

Program(s): L.H. Weise invited Holly Moore to tell us about Hospice. Hospice serves individuals whom their doctors say have six months or less to live, and tries to make their days more comfortable and as pain free as possible. They also assist the family and caregivers. Please contact them if you know of someone who could benefit from their services. Thanks, L.H. and Holly for an informative program.

George Elder was here to update us on the Pine Tree Festival and Southeast Timber Expo. By all accounts, last year, the first year in the new format was a success, and he expressed a hope that it could grow even more and have a larger economic impact on the Swainsboro community. Thanks, George, for bringing us this report.

Door Prizes: Tim Goodman won the caramel cake provided by Adi Galloway. Chip Durden won the Domino's pizza provided by Chris Cann. Travis Garrett and Bob Losser took the meals home.
