

The Swainsboro Kiwanian

November 4, 2008

On the evening of this historic Election Day, President Bobby Seamans called the meeting to order promptly at 7:00. Jim Dekle led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance, and Tim Goodman offered the invocation.

Next week, for our Night out on Kiwanis, Tobe Karrh, John Black, Jimmy Morgan, L.H. Weise, Caroline Harless, and Chris Ramsey are invited to bring a spouse or guest.

Sports: Tobe Karrh was not able to be present, but he sent a football report for last weekend. In fact, Tobe has been in the Emanuel Medical Center since Monday evening, but Barbara reports that he is doing much better and will probably be home by the time you read this.

As is usually the case, some are happy and some are not. Swainsboro High and ECI won, while DEA lost. Georgia Tech won, and Georgia lost. South Carolina won, and Nebraska lost.

Gary Couse reported on some of these same games, but added that Texas lost. In pro football, the Titans remain undefeated. In NASCAR, Edwards won the race this weekend, but Johnson remains ahead in point standings.

Court: Judge Charles Brewer recessed court for the evening. I was not there, but I'll bet there were some sighs of relief.

Announcements: A big thanks is due Jim Dekle for heading up out annual Octoberfest last Thursday night. By all accounts it was a huge success. Thanks are also due to each Kiwanian who was present to work that evening. I do not have a list of names, but many came out. There were also several Kiwanians there to help, and we thank them for their efforts also.

On Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:00, the David Emanuel Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the staff of Franklin Memorial Library will host a Veterans Reception at the library. All veterans, families, and friends are cordially invited and encouraged to attend.

Program: Program Chair Adi Galloway invited Jean Morgan to present the program. Jean talked about the history of East Georgia College and brought the club up to date on some current events. Beginning with the first graduating class of 3, East Georgia College today has an enrollment of over 2500 students, 950 of which are on the Swainsboro campus. She told us about two events of interest coming up in November. On the 13th, volunteers will be calling on friends of the college to pledge support to the Foundation for next year. On the 15th, everyone is invited to come to campus to see the new developments. There will be live music, tours, and food as well as other activities. Thanks to Adi and Jean for this program.

Door Prizes: Chip Durden furnished the cake, baked by Petite Garrett and won by L.H. Weise. David Bartram won the Domino's pizza, provided by Chris Cann. John Black and Tim Goodman won the take out meals.

Coming up:	Program	Cake
November 11	Ron McCrosky	Bill Breedlove
November 18	Caroline Harless	Gary Couse
November 25	Gary Couse	John Blackburn
December 2	David Bartram	Dwight Watt
December 9	Jason Johnson	L.H. Weise

Thanks to David Bartram for taking notes for me Tuesday night, as I was unable to be present.
